

Conflict of Interest / Disclosure Statement

The group practice of Team Atlanta consisting of Drs. Ronald Goldstein, David Garber, Maurice Salama, Henry Salama and Associates individually and/or collectively have been active in the clinical research of esthetic restorative materials, implants, and regenerative and periodontal techniques over the past 28 years. As such, they have been consultants, lecturers, and/or principal investigators or co-investigators in numerous clinical and laboratory studies and product evaluations sponsored through contractual relationships with different corporations and/or universities which include Nobel BioCare, Straumann, Bioment 3i, Inc., Dentsply Implants, Brasseler USA, Zimmer, BTI, Thommen Medical, I-CAT, Lifecore, Keystone, BioHorizons, 3M, Bisco, Biora, Siemens, Premier, Ivoclar, Den-Mat, Shofu, ProDentec, Piezosurgery, DoWell, Devemed, Panasonic, Minolta, Kodak, Sony, Vident, Hu-Fiedy, Moyco/Union Broach, Masel, National Dental Network, Global MicroSurgical, Materialise, Luxar, American Dental Technologies, Sunrise Technologies, Biolase, Belmont, Consult Pro, Stoma, XCPT, ATitan Instruments, OralDNA, Carestream, Neobiotech, Millenium Dental Technologies, Hiossen, MIS Implants, Deka Lasers, Megagen, Novabone and DentalXP.com.

Dr. Salama is not employed, does not hold a board or leadership position, does not conduct funded research or own shares of any Dental Product Manufacturer.

Currently, he is not on the Speaker Bureau of any commercial entity.

Dr. Maurice Salama

Jan. 18th 2017

Date _____